Humboldt River Ranches

Maintained gravel and graded roads are throughout the Humboldt River Ranches subdivision. The Humboldt River Ranch Association (HRRRA) is a private ranch community located between Lovelock and Winnemucca Nevada. Located in the foothills, which gradually slope westerly, between the Humboldt Mountain Range and Interstate 80. HRRRA properties share the view of some of the most spectacular scenery in the West; desert, mountains, foothills, river, and the Rye Patch Reservoir, located just across I-80. Humboldt River Ranch has endless outdoor activities ; kayaking, fishing, and camping on the Humboldt River. In the Humboldt Mountains there is ATVs, horseback riding, hunting, and hiking. The HRRRA resort consists of 13 sleeper cabins, BBQ pavilion, 4 RV sites, RV storage, 3 tent sits, comfort/shower station. There is a community lodge located at the resort that has a common cooking facility, pool table, children's play area and television room. Members also have use of the campground facilities which border the Humboldt River.
