Now Available, a surveyed one acre timbered and level corner lot with power near Crater Lake in southern Oregon. Located south of Bend and less than 50 miles north of Klamath Falls right off HWY 97, this scenic subdivision has cinder roads, power throughout, and the lot can be accessed year around using a 2WD vehicle. Build your home or bring your mobile, this is a versatile lot that can also be used for recreational purposes. Crater Lake lies 12 miles to the west as the crow flies.

Klamath Falls

Located just 25 miles north of the California border, Klamath Falls is the county seat for Klamath County, Oregon, and the majority of the county population resides here. Home to national chains and local flare, the city has all services one would need. It is also home to the largest freshwater lake by surface area in the state of Oregon, Upper Klamath Lake. Measuring 25 miles long and 8 miles wide, the lake is a sportsman's paradise. Also overlooking the lake, the nearby Running Y Ranch Resort & hotel features a golf course designed by Arnold Palmer and an ice skating arena.

Klamath Falls has developed a series of trails in Moore Park. The trail network in and around Moore Park is well loved and heavily used by hikers, cyclists, runners, and others. Crater Lake National Park is less than 50 miles north of Klamath Falls, and the 33-mile Rim Drive, which circles the lake, is a favorite of cyclists. Winter cross country skiing and snow shoeing in the park is also very popular.
